2017 Volunteer Chardonnay

What is Volunteer Chardonnay?

What does it taste like?

Volunteer Chardonnay is a classic Napa Valley Chardonnay with flavors and style that will fit on every table. This wine is rich and creamy with hints of citrus, pear, and vanilla.

Why Volunteer?

Winemaker Tony Leonardini is a former volunteer firefighter in Napa Valley. Ask, and he will share stories about traveling the state to put out fires. Volunteer wine salutes that spirit of giving.

What happened in 2017?

The year started off with record rainfall leading to early, robust growth on the vines. Then summer started off average but quickly changed to one of the hottest summers on record! The vines and grapes were tested, but with modern farming techniques, the vines were aided and protected. In the end, due to ample water and sunlight, 2017 will produce another excellent vintage.
